The diagram shows a large rectangular frame representing a page. Inside, there are three distinct sections. The top section is a rectangle labeled 'Topper'. Below it is a smaller rectangle labeled 'Text' which has a wavy line at its top edge. The bottom section is a wide rectangle labeled 'Graphics / Images'. The word 'Baseline' is written to the left of the 'Text' box, and a vertical line segment is drawn to its left. The entire layout is enclosed in a hand-drawn border.
